

This picture shows a group of objects that could be organized.

How could you organize these objects?

Where can you find a group of objects that could be organized?

You can take a picture, make a sketch, or bring objects to show.

Bring back at least one example of a group of objects that could be organized.

Off You Go!